

National Trails Day • June 4, 2011 • 18K or 9K

Location Blue Mound State Park, Blue Mounds, Wisconsin—about 20 miles west of Madison. Race number pickup and start are in the pool area. State park vehicle admission sticker required—may be purchased on entry.

Course The challenging 18K course traverses prairies and deep woods on a mix of ski trails and single-track. The course extends east to the East Mound at Brigham Park and features a climb to the top of Blue Mound near the end, with drops into Pleasure Valley in between. The 9K course picks up the first and last sections of the 18K course for a shorter but challenging taste of trail running. Plenty of hills, rocks, and mud for all!

Amenities

- Tech running T-shirt
- Water, energy drink, and food on course
- Showers (bring a towel)
- Post-race food!

Schedule 7:00-8:15 AM Check-in/Number Pickup 8:30 AM Race Start

Benefit Proceeds benefit the Friends of Blue Mound State Park. The Friends support many projects in the park every year, from trail maintenance to fund raising for a new all season shelter building at the trailhead.
